IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR EMPANELLEMENT OF AGENCY FOR MANPOWER SUPPLY

Introduction

The Government of Bihar has initiated a scheme for marketing and processing of vegetables in the state. The scheme is named as Bihar State Vegetable Processing and Marketing Scheme. The main objective of the scheme is to establish “virtuous cycle” for vegetable producers and consumers through the medium of cooperative societies. This scheme is intended to ensure remunerative price to the vegetable producers on the one hand and provide quality vegetable products at competitive rate to the consumers on the other.

The scheme will be implemented in various phases. In the first phase the five districts of Patna, Nalanda, Begusarai, Vaishali and Samastipur will be clubbed together to create Vegetable Processing and Marketing Union. This will be formed as Central Cooperative Society and headquartered at Patna district. After the successful working of this stage the scheme will be expanded to include other districts in a phase wise manner.

Broad objective of the proposal

Requirement For Human Resources: The agencies are required for supplying of manpower as per the indents raised by the Union/ Federation and the pre-set eligibility criteria.
